

MLA: THE BASICS

Title. Must be creative Center. Plain.

MLA Handbook Format	Lastname 1
First M. Lastname Professor Adams Humanities 101 1 April 2005 Centered Title in Heading Caps Margins are one inch around the page; double space all text including quotes and headings. The MLA Handbook makes no provision for section headings or subheadings. It argues that many fields prefer not to use subheadings, and offers no instructions for doing so. However, the MLA's own journal, PMLA, often uses headings and subheadings in published papers, one style is shown on the other page. Block quotes are required when the quote exceeds four lines--indented one inch from the left margin. To be a philosopher is not merely to have subtle thoughts, nor even to found a school, but to so love wisdom as to live according to its dictates, a life of simplicity, independence, magnanimity, and trust. (Thoreau, Walden ch. 5, 15) Indent paragraphs one-half inch. Do not right justify the text. Hyphenated words can obscure meanings. The MLA Handbook prefers underlining to italics, just be consistent. Make all notes endnotes.	This is left aligned
